

ANNOUNCING THE 3rd ANNUAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE LEVEL

STUDENT ESSAY CONTEST 2010

SPONSORED BY Oxford University Press

CATESOL proudly presents the 2010 Community College Level Essay Contest for students in community college programs throughout the States of California and Nevada.

"Teaching and Learning in a Global Community" is the theme of the 2010 CATESOL Conference, to be held in Santa Clara, California April 22nd- 25th, 2010. In keeping with this conference theme, the writing prompt for the annual student essay contest for 2010 is:

"What important lessons have you learned in your community college education about interacting with people of other cultures?"

The essay must be typed, double spaced, and contain a maximum of 500 words. At the top of the essay, the following information should be included:

- Teacher Name
- School/Agency & Address
- Telephone
- Email
- Student Name
- ESL Level
- Address & Telephone
- Email

Please email essays to:

Bette Brickman

bette.brickman@csn.edu

or

Barbara Luther

bjlu5903@att.net

A selected panel will read all essays. Essays will be scored based on a rubric. The student author of the winning essay will receive a prize of $500.00, contributed by Oxford University Press. The winning essay will be recognized at the 2010 CATESOL State Conference in Santa Clara, CA. Please note that the winner and/or his or her teacher may travel at their own expense to the state conference in Santa Clara without financial assistance from CATESOL. Deadline for submissions: Friday, January 29th, 2010. For questions, please email Bette Brickman (Community College Level Chair) at: bette.brickman@csn.edu or Barbara Luther (Assistant Community College Level Chair) at: bjlu5903@att.net.

Please share this announcement with your colleagues!

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

USA

The World's Largest University Press: Excellence, Tradition, and Innovation