

Announcing the Sixth Annual David E. Eskey Memorial Award for Curriculum Innovation

To be awarded at the 41st Annual CATESOL State Conference in Santa Clara, April 22-25, 2010

Purpose: To honor Professor Eskey's memory by recognizing accomplishments related to his professional endeavors (literacy, teacher preparation, research or practice). Submissions are encouraged in a variety of formats including books, articles, curriculum guides, etc.

Criteria: The committee will select one winner, based on the following criteria:

- A. Strength and clarity of the project's purpose, organization and expression
- B. Relevance and depth of Dr. Eskey's influence on the project

Preparing the Submission: Prepare an MS Word or Adobe Acrobat document including the four pieces of information below. Use the headings below, but eliminate any references to the author.

1. A cover sheet with your name, address, affiliation, telephone and fax numbers, e-mail address, CATESOL membership number (if applicable), and the title of the work
2. A statement (400-500 words) including an explanation of the relevance and depth of Dr. Eskey's influence on the project
3. The rationale or theoretical basis for the project, the target population and language level, and the outcomes of the project (up to 2,000 words)
4. The materials:
  - a. If the submission is an article: include a copy of the entire article.
  - b. If the submission is an unpublished curriculum project: Include the table of contents, key pages, and other relevant documents that demonstrate the value of the project. (25 pages maximum)
  - c. If the submission is a published book: Include the table of contents, introduction, sample chapters, and any other sections that demonstrate the value of the book. (25 pages maximum)

Deadline for Submissions: Applications must be received on or before March 1, 2010

For information and submissions, please contact:

Lía D. Kamhi-Stein, Ph.D.
Chair, David E. Eskey Award
lkamhis@calstatela.edu